1. Introduction

- 1.1. This policy outlines the arrangements for Shared Parental Leave and pay in relation to the adoption of a child. If you are giving birth to your child please refer to the Shared Parental Leave (Birth) Policy
- 1.2. This policy applies to Trust employees

2. Frequently used terms

- 2.1. The definitions in this paragraph apply in this policy:
 - Adopter: A child's adopter is either the person who has been matched with the child for adoption or, where two people have been matched jointly, the person who has elected (at the time they are notified that they have been matched) to be the child's adopter for statutory adoption leave and pay purposes
 - Prospective adopter: A prospective adopter is someone who has been approved as suitable to adopt a child and has been notified of that decision
 - Partner: spouse, civil partner or someone living with another person in an enduring family relationship, but not a sibling, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew
 - Qualifying Week: the week the adoption agency notifies you that you have been matched with a child for adoption

3. What is shared parental leave?

Shared parental leave is a type of leave that gives you and your partner more flexibility in how to share care of your child in the first year after your child is placed with you for adoption than simply taking adoption and paternity leave. Assuming you are both eligible, you will be able to choose how to split available leave between you and can decide to be off work at the same time or at different times. You may be able to take leave in more than one block. SPL must end no later than one year after the birth of the child or placed for adoption and any SPL not taken by the child's first birthday is lost.

4. Entitlement to SPL

- 4.1. You are entitled to SPL if an adoption agency has placed a child with you or your partner for adoption and you intend to share the main responsibility for the care of the child with your partner.
- 4.2. The following conditions must be fulfilled:
 - a) you must have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with us by the end of the qualifying week, and still be employed by us in the week before the leave is to be taken

- b) your partner must have worked (in an employed or self-employed capacity) in at least 26 of the 66 weeks before the qualifying week and had average weekly earnings of at least £30 during 13 of those weeks
 - c) you and the other parent must provide the respective employers with the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end adoption leave or statutory adoption pay
- 4.3. The total amount of SPL available is 52 weeks, less the weeks of adoption leave taken by either you or your partner (or the weeks in which your partner has been in receipt of SAP if they were not entitled to adoption leave)
- 4.4. Either you or your partner must qualify for statutory adoption leave or SAP and must take at least two weeks of adoption leave and pay

5. Opting in to shared parental leave and pay

- 5.1. Not less than eight weeks before the date you intend your SPL to start, you must give us a written notice to opt-in to the shared parental leave scheme (Appendix A) which includes:
- a) your full name and your partner's name
 - b) if you are taking adoption leave, your adoption leave start and end dates
 - c) if you are not taking adoption leave, your partner's adoption leave start and end dates, or if your partner is not entitled to adoption leave, the start and end dates of their SAP
 - d) the total SPL available, which is 52 weeks minus the number of weeks adoption leave or SAP taken or to be taken by you or your partner
 - e) how many weeks of the available SPL will be allocated to you and how many to your partner (you can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice, and you do not have to use your full allocation)
 - f) if you are claiming statutory shared parental pay (ShPP), the total ShPP available, which is 39 weeks (minus the number of weeks of SAP taken or to be taken); payable during the 52 week following your date of adoption
 - g) how many weeks of the available ShPP will be allocated to you and how many to your partner (you can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice, and you do not have to use your full allocation)
 - h) an indication of the pattern of leave you are thinking of taking, including suggested start and end dates for each period of leave (see paragraphs 9, 10, 11 and 12 for information on taking leave). This indication will not be binding at this stage, but please give as much information as you can about your future intentions
 - i) declarations by you and your partner that you both meet the statutory conditions to enable you to take SPL and ShPP (see Appendix A – Adoption)

6. Ending adoption leave

- 6.1. If you are taking or intend to take adoption leave and want to opt in to the SPL scheme, you must give us at least eight weeks' written notice to end your adoption leave early (a curtailment notice) (Appendix B – adoption). The notice must state the date your adoption leave will end. You can give the notice before or after adoption leave starts, but you must take at least two weeks adoption leave
- 6.2. You must also give us, at the same time as the curtailment notice, a Notice to Opt in to the Shared Parental Leave scheme (Appendix A) (see paragraph 5) or a written declaration that your partner has given their employer an opt-in notice and that you have given the necessary declarations in that notice
- 6.3. If your partner is eligible to take SPL from their employer they cannot start it until you have given us your curtailment notice
- 6.4. The curtailment notice is usually binding and cannot be revoked. You can only revoke a curtailment notice if your adoption leave has not yet ended and one of the following applies:
 - a) if you realise that neither you nor your partner are in fact eligible for SPL or ShPP, you can revoke the curtailment notice in writing up to eight weeks after it was given
 - b) if your partner has died
- 6.5. Once you have revoked a curtailment notice you will be unable to opt back in to the SPL scheme Error! Reference source not found.

7. Ending your partner's adoption leave or pay

- 7.1. If you are not the mother and she is still on adoption leave or claiming SMP or MA, you will only be able to take SPL once the mother has either:
 - a) returned to work
 - b) given their employer a curtailment notice to end adoption leave
 - c) given their employer a curtailment notice to end SAP (if they are entitled to SAP but not adoption leave)

8. Evidence of entitlement

- 8.1. You must also provide on request:
 - a) One or more documents from the adoption agency showing the agency's name and address and the expected placement date; and
 - b) The name and address of your partner's employer (or a declaration that they are self-employed)

9. Discussions regarding shared parental leave

- 9.1. If you are considering taking SPL you are encouraged to contact the Trust's HR manager to arrange an informal discussion as early as possible regarding your potential entitlement, to talk about your plans and to enable us to support you
- 9.2. The HR manager may upon receiving a notification of entitlement to take SPL seek to arrange an informal discussion with you to talk about your intentions and how you expect to use your SPL entitlement
- 9.3. Upon receiving a notice to opt-in to the shared parental leave scheme form (Appendix A – Adoption), the HR manager will arrange a meeting to discuss it. Where a notice is for a single period of continuous leave (a period of a number of weeks taken in a single unbroken period of leave), or for discontinuous leave (where you intend to return to work between periods of leave) and it can be approved without further discussion, a meeting may not be necessary
- 9.4. Where a meeting is arranged it will take place in private and be arranged in advance. If the initial date is problematic then another date will be arranged if possible. If an alternative date cannot be arranged then a discussion may take place over the telephone
- 9.5. At the meeting you may, if you wish, be accompanied by a workplace colleague or a trade union representative
- 9.6. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss in detail the leave proposed and what will happen while you are away from work. Where it is a request for discontinuous leave the discussion may also focus on how the leave proposal could be agreed, whether a different arrangement would be agreeable to you and us and what the outcome may be if no agreement is reached

10. Booking your SPL dates

- 10.1. Having opted into the SPL scheme you will need to give notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C – Adoption) informing us the start and end dates of your leave. This can be given at the same time as your opt-in notice (Appendix A), or it can be given later, as long as it is given at least eight weeks before the start of your leave. You must also state in your notice of dates for shared parental leave the dates on which you intend to claim shared parental pay (ShPP), if applicable
- 10.2. If your notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Adoption) gives dates for a single period of continuous leave of SPL you will be entitled to take the leave set out in the notice
- 10.3. You can submit up to three notices of dates for shared parental leave (Appendix C - Adoption). This may enable you to take up to three separate blocks of SPL (although if you give a notice to vary or cancel a period of leave this will in most cases count as a further notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C – Adoption))

11. Procedure for requesting discontinuous periods of SPL

- 11.1. In general, a notice of dates for shared parental leave (Appendix C - Adoption) should set out a single continuous block of leave. We may, in some cases, be willing to consider a notice of dates for SPL where the SPL is split into shorter periods (of at least a week) with periods of work in between. It is best to discuss this with your line manager in advance of submitting any notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C – Adoption). This will give us more time to consider the request and hopefully agree a pattern of leave with you from the start
- 11.2. You must submit a notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C - Adoption) setting out the requested pattern of leave at least eight weeks before the requested start date. If we are unable to agree to your request straight away, there will be a two-week discussion period. At the end of that period, we will confirm any agreed arrangements in writing. If we have not reached an agreement, you will be entitled to take the full amount of requested SPL as one continuous block, starting on the start date given in your notice (for example, if you requested three separate periods of four weeks each, you will be entitled to one 12-week period of leave). Alternatively, you may:
 - a) choose a new start date (which must be at least eight weeks after your original notice of dates for shared parental leave was given), and tell us within five days of the end of the two-week discussion period
 - b) withdraw your notice of dates for shared Parental Leave within fifteen days of the date of the Notice (in which case it will not be counted and you may submit a new one if you choose)

12. Changing the dates or cancelling your SPL

- 12.1. You can cancel a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date in the notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Adoption)
- 12.2. You can change the start date for a period of leave, or the length of the period of leave, by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the original start date or the new start date, whichever is earlier
- 12.3. You can change the end date for a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the original end date, or the new end date, whichever is earlier
- 12.4. You can change split periods of leave into a single continuous period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date of the first period, or in writing at least eight weeks before the original end date if the leave has already commenced
- 12.5. You can request that a continuous period of leave be split into two or more discontinuous periods with periods of work in between. We will consider any such request as set out in paragraph 11
- 12.6. A notice to cancel or change a period of leave will count as one of your three notices of dates for shared parental leave, unless:

- a) A notice of Dates for Shared Parental Leave (see Appendix C) requesting a discontinuous period of SPL is withdrawn by you on or before the fifteenth day after the notice was given
- b) The variation is a result of your child being born earlier or later than the EWC
- c) The variation is at our request
- d) We agree otherwise

13. Shared parental pay (ShPP)

- 13.1. ShPP is payable for a maximum of 37 during the 50 week following the date of adoption, as 2 weeks Statutory Adoption Pay (SAP) must be taken
- 13.2. You may be able to claim ShPP if you have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with us at the end of the Qualifying Week and your average earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit set by the government each tax year
- 13.3. ShPP is paid at a rate set by the government each year

14. Other terms during shared parental leave

- 14.1. Your terms and conditions of employment remain in force during shared parental leave, except for the terms relating to pay
- 14.2. If you are a member of the employer's pension scheme, we will make employer pension contributions during any period of paid SPL, based on your normal salary, in accordance with the pension scheme rules. Any employee contributions you make will be based on the amount of any shared parental pay you are receiving, unless you inform us that you wish to make up any shortfall

15. Keeping in touch

- 15.1. We may make reasonable contact with you from time to time during your SPL although we will keep this to a minimum. This may include contacting you to discuss arrangements for your return to work
- 15.2. You may ask or be asked to work (including attending training) on up to 20 "shared parental leave in touch" days (SPLIT days) during your SPL. This is in addition to any "keeping in touch" days (KIT days) that you may have taken during adoption leave. KIT/SPLIT days are not compulsory and must be discussed and agreed with us. Any SPLIT days worked do not extend the period of SPL
- 15.3. You will be paid at your normal basic rate of pay for time spent working on a SPLIT day and this will be inclusive of any shared parental pay entitlement

16. Returning to work

- 16.1. If you want to end a period of SPL early, you must give us eight weeks written notice of the new return date. This should be addressed to the Headteacher. If you have already given us three notices of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Adoption) requesting that a discontinuous period of SPL is withdrawn by you on or before the fifteenth day after the notice was given, you will not be able to end your SPL early without our agreement

- 16.2. If you want to extend your SPL, assuming you still have unused SPL entitlement remaining, you must submit a new notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C) at least eight weeks before the date you were due to return to work. If you have already submitted notices you will not be able to extend your SPL without our agreement. If you are unable to request more SPL you may be able to request annual leave or ordinary parental leave, which will be subject to our need for you to be at work
- 16.3. You are normally entitled to return to work in the position you held before starting SPL, and on the same terms of employment. However, if it is not reasonably practicable for us to allow you to return into the same position, we may give you another suitable and appropriate job on terms and conditions that are not less favourable, but only in the following circumstances:
 - a) if your SPL and any adoption or paternity leave you have taken adds up to more than 26 weeks in total (whether or not taken consecutively)
 - b) if you took SPL consecutively with more than four weeks of ordinary parental leave
- 16.4. If you want to change your hours or other working arrangements on return from SPL you should make a request under our Flexible Working Policy. It is helpful if such requests are made as early as possible
- 16.5. If you decide you do not want to return to work you should give notice of resignation in accordance with your contract

ShPP but may still be eligible for adoption or paternity pay

Notices

The following notices must be given to the employer:

1. Notice To Opt-In to Shared Parental Leave (Appendix A) – at least 8 weeks' notice must be given.
2. Ending adoption leave early (curtailment notice) (Appendix B) at least 8 weeks' before employee due to end adoption leave and pay.
3. Notice of Dates of Shared Parental Leave (Appendix C) – at least eight weeks' notice must be given.
4. Two weeks adoption leave (compulsory) must be taken.

Leave

The employer is only obliged to accept three notices to book leave per employee. This includes the initial request and two further notifications/changes to previous notifications.

Where the request is for continuous leave the employer must agree to it.

Where the request is for discontinuous leave and the employer doesn't immediately agree to it, there should be a two week discussion period between the employer and employee.

If agreement is still not reached SPL defaults to the period of continuous leave unless the employee withdraws the request within 15 calendar days of the original notification (it won't then count towards the three notice limit).

The employee can change the start date of this continuous leave provided they do so within five days of the end of the discussion period above and the new date does not start sooner than eight weeks from the date the original notification was given.
